Elaborate preparations are being made by Hon. George Foster for the sessions of the Dominion Royal Commission, which will meet in Canada the first week in August. Circulars are being sent to the boards of trade throughout Canada, to associations such as the Manufacturers Association, Trades and Labor Congress and all interested bodies, in addition to many trade experts, asking for information and suggestions on the various subjects which it is the intention of the commission to study while in Canada. Among the most important questions which the commission will investigate while in Canada will be that of the control of ocean rates between Canada and the United Kingdom. Evidence on this subject has been invited, both as to rates and the means of effective control.

ALDERMAN PUTS IN RESIGNATION

After the letter had been read Monday evening, Alderman Shattford expressed the opinion that it would not be advisable to accept the resignation. He made a motion that the matter be laid on the table until next week, in which Alderman Shattford seconded him.

"A Real Loss to the City," "I hope that Alderman Costerton may be brought to reconsider the matter before Monday," said Alderman Shattford in explanation. "It will be a real loss to the city if he persists in his resignation." The motion to lay the letter on the table was unanimously carried.

Seen by a News Representative on Monday, Mr. Costerton said that it was with very sincere regret that he felt constrained to take this course. He paid a tribute of admiration to the hard work for the city's welfare done by his colleagues on the Council, which made it all the harder for him to disassociate himself from their activities. On the matter of the rate for the current year, however, he felt that he could not change his opinions, which had been reached only after a serious investigation in a difficult financial situation, and a careful consideration of the requirements of the city.

There was a legacy of unpaid accounts amounting to some $24,000 left the present Council by its predecessors in office. These included some long past due for pipe, electrical supplies, etc., and it was absolutely necessary that these bills be met this year. In order to do this, and bring the city out square at the end of the year, he believed the rate of 30 mills should have been struck. The other members of the Council had decided that 27 mills would be sufficient, and, as he could not agree with them in this, he had decided that he could not bear his individual share of the responsibility for such action, and saw no alternative but to put in his resignation.

Debtors Are Sold. At an adjourned meeting of the Council held on Wednesday of last week the city's financial condition was carefully discussed and the offer from Wood, Gundy & Company, of Toronto, for the purchase of the $24,000 worth of debentures recently authorized was accepted. The offer was at 99.27, and the debentures will net the city $23,825.

On Thursday another meeting was held, at which a report from a special committee of the whole Council, recommending a 27 mill rate was adopted. The following reductions in the estimates of the different departments were also decided on:

Police and administration	$50,000
Justice	500.00
Health and cemetery	500.00
Water deficiency	5,000.00
Board of Works	5,000.00
Store-keeper	500.00

The last item is the saving which will result from dispensing with the services of James Maltman, assistant city storekeeper.

ANOTHER INVESTIGATION. G. T. P. Construction Contracts Come Up for Discussion.

Ottawa, April 8.—Another transcontinental inquiry is on the tapis. In the public accounts committee today, W. M. German, of Welland, after securing an order for the production of papers and vouchers, examined the payments of $18,858,000 to J. D. McArthur, had the committee summon Mr. Leonard, chairman of the Transcontinental Commission; Gordon Grant, chief engineer, and Collingwood Schrieber, C. M. G., to give evidence on Tuesday.

The subject of the inquiry, Mr. German explained, would be payments made on the McArthur contract in respect to over-classification. A board of arbitrators, consisting of Messrs. Grant and Schrieber for the N. T. R., and G. T. P. respectively, with Collingwood Schrieber, C. M. G., as third arbitrator, found that $429,000 should be deducted from the contract by reason of over-classification by the returns of the engineers. It is alleged that Major Leonard and officers under him made a settlement with McArthur whereby only $150,000 was deducted.

U. S. TARIFF LAW.

Washington, April 6.—The Underwood-Simmons Tariff Act went into effect six months ago today and present indications are that it will not reduce customs revenue any more than was estimated in Congress at the time of passing.

According to the Treasury's statement, customs revenue amounted to about $26,000,000, which is about $1,500,000 less than the Payne-Aldrich law produced in March, 1913. That was a marked increase over February, when revenues fell over $10,000,000 below the same month of 1912. The average monthly decrease in customs revenue for the six months the new tariff has been in operation is placed at about $1,000,000, but officials were confident today that it would be reduced in the coming six months. The annual reduction was estimated at about $15,000,000 a year.

TRADE CONDITIONS.

Dun's Review Shows an Improving Tendency in Canadian Business.

New York, April 6.—Despatches to "Dun's Review" from branches of R. G. Dun & Company in leading trade centres of the Dominion of Canada indicate the continuance of considerable conservatism, although in some directions there appears to be evidence of an improving tendency.

Montreal reports little change in general trade conditions although the approach of Easter is helping retail business in dry goods, and wholesalers say they are receiving fair sorting orders. There has been no improvement in footwear and the local demand for leather is moderate. There is a normal movement of groceries but orders for paints, oils, etc., show some falling off. Collections continue slow.

Business at Quebec is beginning to exhibit improvement and a good trade is generally looked for this season.

Some Improvement. Some improvement is noted in wholesale trade at Toronto this week and the outlook on the whole is encouraging. There is a brisk demand for millinery, but dry goods are quiet. The demand for clothing is better and there is a fair movement of groceries while a moderate inquiry for leather is noted.

Spring trade is opening up fairly well in the Far West and Northwest although the weather has not been altogether favorable for the movement of merchandise.

A Winnipeg jobber reports a fair volume of business and country merchants show a disposition to anticipate future requirements. Building is becoming active and all kinds of material are in great demand.

The weather has retarded the movement of merchandise at Saskatoon and retail trade is rather quiet.

Calgary reports that city retail trade has been interfered with by the weather and the movement in wholesale lines is in consequence somewhat slower, but the situation appears sound and improvement is shortly expected.

Active Demand. Wholesalers at Regina report an active demand for all kinds of staples and prospects for the future are excellent.

Gross earnings of all Canadian railroads reporting to date for March show a decrease of 11.8 per cent. as compared with the earnings of the same month for the corresponding month a year ago.

Commercial failures in the Dominion of Canada this week numbered 45, against 38 last week and 32 the same week last year.

WARSHIPS SOLD. Four Obsolete British Vessels Disposed of at Auction.

London, April 4.—Four superannuated British warships, famous in their day, were sold by auction yesterday at the highest bidder. The most notable was the battleship Penown, which had several claims upon the public interest. For five or six years she has played the unheroic role of training ship for stockers at Portsmouth, but to the highest bidder, the Canadian Northern Railway Company, she was sold for $1,000,000. The Penown was also the vessel in which the present King and Queen, when they were Prince and Princess of Wales, sailed to the Pacific. At the auction yesterday she realized $250,000. The other ships sold were the Resolution, which brought $250,000; and the Peter, which realized $18,500; and the Hedon, which was sold for $10,375.

Sinning Against Your Home Town

"YOUR PROPERTY—WHAT IS ITS TRUE VALUE?"

Your town lot or country home—What is its true value?—In dollars and cents!

If a man came to you and said, "This is just the lot I want."

Or, "This farm of yours just suits me. What do you want for it?"

And if you said "$1,000 for the lot," or "$10,000 for the farm," on what would you base the figures? How would you arrive at that particular sum?

Of course, the value of the land next to yours would have a great deal to do with it—but—

Wouldn't you figure as your biggest asset the prosperity of your home town—the fact that it is growing and is going to keep on growing and that in five years, the value of your property will double that of today—IF YOUR HOME TOWN CONTINUES TO GROW AND PROSPER.

You bet you would—you would play up that point to beat the band—you would paint a beautiful picture of how your town has grown up from a small village, and how it is going to continue to grow into a metropolis.

In other words—YOU CAPITALIZE THE GROWTH OF YOUR HOME TOWN.

Pay More Than Value. If the man bought your city lot or country home—he would be paying more than the actual value—the intrinsic value of the land itself.

He would be investing in the future of the Okanagan, and if the valley does not continue to grow and prosper that man is going to lose some money.

So you can see that the true value of your property depends on the progressiveness of your home town and that if you want your property to increase in value it is up to you to help your town grow.

And the only way to help your home town to grow is to encourage more business and social activity by participating in it yourself.

We must keep our money. We can't afford to let any of it get out because when we do, it has gone forever.

Let's stop "sinning against our home town" and go back to first principles.

Let's do the way our forefathers did. If they could not get the things they wanted at home—they either did without them or made them.

Merchants Here to Stay. Our merchants are just as progressive as merchants found in any other town. The goods they have for our selection are, just as up-to-date, and full of value as the goods found in other towns. And we will find that their prices are just about the same as the prices in other towns. Our merchants are here to stay and grow up with the city, and they will expand and enlarge just as soon as their business warrants. By patronizing them we are helping ourselves—we are helping our property to increase in value. Don't forget that the farms of today are the city lots of tomorrow—if the town next door keeps growing.

Every city has had a beginning. The settlers of yesterday are the City Fathers of today. Take your home town—it is not hard to run over in your mind the names of those who have made their money in real estate. Their fathers were the settlers of yesterday. Their heirs of today are reaping the results of their fathers' investments. With the growth of the town and district their holdings naturally increased. And as the values increased, their taxes increased, and so it goes.

That is the way you should recognize the value of your property—on the progressiveness of the people of your home town.

A city expands only as its business expands. New business enterprises are attracted only if the business is here. By your trading at home you cause more business, because the trade that goes out of town is lost forever.

The next installment of "Sinning against your home town" will appear in our next issue. In it "A Town of a Thousand Managers" will appear. Don't fail to read it.

WILLIAM SAUTER with Orchard Players, Empress Theatre, Friday, April 17th.

NEW ZEALAND TRADE.

Opportunities for Sale of Farm Products Are Detailed by Expert.

Auckland, April 6.—Complete confidence regarding the completeness of the markets which are being developed on the Pacific slope for New Zealand dairy produce was gained by William Goodfellow, managing director of the Waikato Co-operative Dairy Company, during a visit to the western cities of Canada and the United States, from which he returned recently. He was also impressed by the immediate need for measures to protect the Dominion produce against commercial methods, likely to injure its reputation, and against competition from Australia.

Careful inquiries were made by Mr. Goodfellow in Vancouver, Seattle, Portland and San Francisco, with a view of determining whether these cities and their neighbors would afford a permanent outlet for New Zealand dairy produce and to what extent he market could be cultivated in preference to London. There is, he points out, a population of 300,000 in Vancouver and surrounding districts, and it is wholly dependent, as are also the regions east of Winnipeg and north to Alaska, upon imported meat and butter. In that market, New Zealand butter is already held in high esteem. Mr. Goodfellow added that he was convinced the Canadian demand would grow rapidly, and would be permanent. In his opinion, the outlook in the United States is not so promising, as the climate along the Pacific slope is milder, and there is a fairly large local production.

New Zealand Butter. The highest praise for New Zealand butter was heard by Mr. Goodfellow in all the cities where he met merchants engaged in the trade. He learned, however, that a good deal of "baking" and "bleeding" is being practiced in Canada, and he regarded these methods as sufficient to injure the reputation of New Zealand produce, unless they were checked. The law permits 16 per cent of moisture, but a certain amount of the butter is "faked" by the importation of from 5 to 10 per cent additional moisture before it is sold. Larger profits are also secured by blending the inferior produce of the eastern provinces with New Zealand butter, and the composition sold as the imported article. Mr. Goodfellow said he had not heard of margarine being used in all blending butter in Canada.

As a check upon such injurious methods, Mr. Goodfellow suggested that an officer should be at once stationed in Vancouver by the New Zealand Government to watch the interests of the producers, as the dairy commissioner on the High Commissioner's staff does in London. This officer would be able to give valuable assistance to the trade by meeting the effect of Australian competition.

Australian Waking Up. While Mr. Goodfellow was in Canada, the manager of the Brown Bay Company, the largest dairying enterprise in New South Wales, and, in fact, in the southern hemisphere, was engaged in a similar tour, and he publicly declared that next season an attempt will be made to establish Australian butter in the Canadian market.

Very little dairy produce from the Commonwealth has yet been shipped to Canada, but efforts are being made to secure a reciprocal tariff, so that Australia will be able to trade with Canada on terms as favorable as those enjoyed by New Zealand. Mr. Goodfellow says he found that the Canadian public regards Australian and New Zealand as identical. The Dominion being generally supposed to be a state in the Commonwealth without any geographical distinction. Unless, he says, immediate steps are taken to educate the public regarding the independence of New Zealand, he considers that there is a grave risk that Australian butter will secure the market upon the reputation of the New Zealand article, and so greatly limit the opening for Dominion producers.

The opinion regarding the need for a trade representative in Vancouver is supported by E. Clifton, trade commissioner at San Francisco, and the latter has already addressed his recommendation to the Prime Minister here.

UNIONIST RALLY.

Big Demonstration in Hyde Park, London, Against Home Rule.

London, April 6.—The widely heralded "rally" of Unionists, to protest against any coercion of Ulster, brought an enormous crowd to Hyde Park on Saturday. Twenty-two processions, with bands playing, and banners flying, converged on the central open space of London, from its many dif-

Schlitz Brown Bottle Claims Authenticated

by Dr. Robert Wahl, President of the Wahl-Henius Institute of Fermentology. We reprint from his letter.

"Our observations, extending over the last twenty-five years, have convinced us beyond a doubt that exposure of beer to light has a very detrimental influence on its quality generally, but especially upon the flavor of the beer.

We have tested beers repeatedly in this direction, placing the bottles into direct sunlight, and testing the same after one, two, three and five minutes exposure, found that the beer with three and five minutes exposure became undrinkable, on account of the peculiar odor developed.

The detrimental effect of light upon beer can be successfully counteracted by the employment of brown or dark colored glass bottles, and such bottles are therefore recommendable."

He quotes famous authorities to corroborate his opinion

Authorities on the subject of the detrimental influence of light on beer are:

C. Lintner, Lehrbuch der Bierbrauerei 1875, S. 343.
Beck, Zeitschrift für das gesamte Brauwesen, 1882, S. 370.

REJECTED BY SENATE.

Proposal to Compel Railways to Start Work in One Year Is Negatived.

Ottawa, April 4.—The expected clash between the senate and commons over the rejection by the upper chamber of the amendments of H. B. Bennett of Calgary to compel western railways to speed up construction, came this morning on the railway committee. Mr. Bennett's amendment provides that companies asking for extensions of time should start work in a year, and complete their lines in three years. The senate reversed this and returned to the commons the original clause.

In the case of the Hudson Bay and Calgary Railway Company bill providing for new branches in the old district of Southern Alberta, Mr. Bennett withdrew his objections, as the bill was not an extension. The company could have asked for a new charter to the bill of the Saskatchewan Central Railway Company, which asked for an extension of time to build a line from Saskatoon to Lethbridge. Mr. Bennett objected to the change made by the senate.

This charter has been in existence for many years. George McCraney moved that the senate's amendment be concurred in, but he was defeated by 21 to 6. The bill will now go back to the commons again, and there promises to be a lively row between the two branches of parliament.

PLAN TO PUBLISH VALLEY REAL ESTATE DIRECTORY

Book Will Contain Description of Properties, With Prices Asked by the Owners.

The publishing of a real estate directory of the Okanagan Valley, a project now being canvassed locally, is a work of large scope and one that promises far-reaching results. It will be of substantial aid to investors, placed before them the real estate of the valley in such a way that they can see the comparative prices asked for property in each locality. At the same time it permits the seller to put all of his property before the buyers and if it has merit such merit shows comparatively.

With the co-operation of the real estate brokers every effort will be made to list the property at its real market value. In future issues the same diligence will be used both to increase the listings and to secure the actual prices at which the property will be delivered.

When a locality develops in such a phenomenal manner as has the Okanagan Valley in the past decade, when business and distributing centers are being transformed from mere stopping places on the map, into important factors in the commerce of the province, it is natural that there should be increases in the value of property which seem well nigh incredible.

The Okanagan, backed by a country whose unlimited resources were for years held back by lack of transportation facilities, is now about to come into its own. The C. P. R. already has its line in operation and the Canadian Northern will begin building operations this spring.

The danger of investing in the Okanagan today would seem to be that inflated values may be paid, prices beyond the market. What the purchasing public would appear to need is information, and any project which proposes to give some figures based on current market values would appear to be working in the direction of adding stability to real estate in B. C.

ALD. COSTERTON'S RESIGNATION.

We feel certain that we are voicing the general sentiment of the citizens of Vernon when we express unqualified regret that the Council is apparently about to lose the services of Alderman Costerton. As chairman of the Finance Committee he has given a great deal of careful attention to this important civic department, and it will be a matter of great difficulty to fill the position vacated by his retirement from office. His colleagues on the Board feel this keenly, and the hope is still expressed that he may yet be persuaded to reconsider his decision. We earnestly trust that such may be the case.

The difference of opinion which led to his resignation is one entirely of policy, and we are glad to say involves no hard feeling between himself and the other members of the Council. It arises out of the unfortunate position in which the Council of 1914 was placed by its predecessors in office, who left a legacy of debt amounting to $47,000 to be provided for. Of this amount, $24,000 was met by the passage of various by-laws this year; but a balance of $23,000, some of which has been owing for water-works supplies since 1912, still remains to be paid. Alderman Costerton, as chairman of the Finance Committee reaches the conclusion that in order to meet these obligations, and leave a clean slate at the end of the year, it will be necessary to levy a rate of 30 mills. The other members of the Council are of the opinion that by rigidly pruning down expenditure, and by putting through a $10,000 by-law to provide for street improvements, etc., a rate of 27 mills will be found to be sufficient. Mr. Costerton states that his most close and careful figuring does not permit him to accept this view, and, rather than accept any further responsibility in the matter, he is determined to withdraw from the Council. He regrets that he considers this action necessary; the whole Council regrets it; and the regret is shared by all who take an intelligent interest in civic affairs. We are unable to determine whether Alderman Costerton's views or those of his colleagues regarding the necessary amount of revenue to be raised this year are correct. Time alone can demonstrate this. But now that his attitude is thoroughly understood by the citizens, no blame will be attached to him whatever the outcome may be; and under the circumstances we feel justified in again expressing the hope that he may be prevailed upon to withdraw his resignation.

THE HOSPITAL BY-LAW.

On Monday, April 20th, the rate-payers will be called upon to vote upon a by-law the purpose of which is to borrow $5,000 to be contributed to the Vernon Jubilee Hospital. It will be remembered that last year the directors of this institution found themselves in such an embarrassing situation by reason of financial liabilities which they were unable to meet, that it was proposed to hand the hospital over to the City. A loan by-law with this end in view was submitted, and failed to carry, though a majority of rate-payers voted for it, the necessary three-fifths of the vote cast was not obtained. Failing this solution to the problem, application was made to the Government, which already had been extremely generous in this respect, for a further grant. To this the reply was received that if the City would contribute $5,000 the Government would give a like amount. This presents an opportunity too favorable to be missed, and the by-law is accordingly presented for public approval.

The hospital at present stands in debt to the extent of some $10,000, most of which is owed to local merchants for supplies of various kinds.

The money thus raised will be used to wipe out this liability, and will no doubt be cheerfully voted, as, failing this means of relief, the city will have to again face the question of taking over the hospital. It is hoped also that with an increased per capita grant for patients from the Government, and a moderate yearly donation from the City, the institution will be able to make both ends meet once it is free from debt.

The by-law was to have been presented on Monday next, but that day being a legal holiday, it was found necessary to postpone the voting for a week. We trust that those interested in this should include every rate-payer in the city will bear this date in mind, so that the vote cast on the 20th inst. will be a thoroughly representative one.

THE DOMINION BUDGET.

Finance Minister White in presenting his budget this week was able to announce a surplus of some six and a half millions, which is quite as large as was expected, though a good deal short of the sums shown on the credit side of the Dominion's ledger during the last two years. Mr. White also struck a cheering note when he declared that the worst of the financial stringency may now be considered a thing of the past, and that a great improvement in monetary conditions can now be confidently expected. An increase in the national debt of about nineteen millions is announced, but this sum is exactly counterbalanced by the same amount paid out during the year in railway subsidies. Despite the large outlay on capital account, including vast expenditures on the National Transcontinental Railway, the net debt of the Dominion is now twenty-five millions less than when Mr. White assumed office two and a half years ago.

With the completion of the Grand Trunk Pacific—or that portion of the road constructed by the Government—a marked relief upon the capital expenditure will ensue; but the outlay on the Hudson Bay Railway, and upon extensions of the canal systems will still require large sums to be provided for, and it is not probable that any great reduction in expenditure upon the capital account will be found to be possible during the next year or two. On the other hand, the revenue from customs receipts which showed a falling off last year, owing to the prevalence of hard times, which naturally kept down the importation of articles of luxury, will probably jump ahead again as soon as money becomes easier. On the whole the figures given in Mr. White's speech are such as to afford satisfaction to those who make a study of the Dominion's financial affairs.

In regard to the tariff, although the new schedule will contain certain reductions and alterations, the basic principle of protection for our industries, as embodied in the historic National Policy of 1878, is clearly maintained. Agricultural implements are subjected to a revision downwards of 5 per cent, which with lessened duties on raw material used in their construction will bring the tariff down to 10 per cent, as compared to 17½ per cent, which has hitherto obtained. The Minister has evidently failed to be convinced by the arguments of those who advocated free wheat and flour. On this matter he states the position of the Government clearly and fully. He intimates that after the Panama Canal and Hudson Bay Railway are in operation, it may be found advisable to take some action in this direction; but in the meantime the Government will continue its efforts to solve the transportation problem, the cost of which is now the chief handicap to the western wheat grower in handling his crop.

Instead of replacing the bounties on steel and iron, it has been decided to make some increase in the duties on these, it having been shown that these industries have been suffering of late as a result of foreign competition.

No doubt Mr. White's budget will be subjected to severe criticism by the Opposition, and as the Liberal Party, which were protectionists while in power, now seem inclined to range themselves under the banner of free trade, complaint will be made that such tariff reductions as have been determined upon do not go far enough. Tariff tinkering, however, is not a matter unaccompanied by difficulty as Mr. Fielding found to his cost, and we believe that the schedule brought down by Mr. White, who may be classed as a moderate protectionist, will meet with the approval of those who give the subject fair and unbiased consideration.

THE PROVINCIAL DEBT.

Although the Hon. Price Ellison in his budget speech this year made it abundantly clear that the debt of this province was the merest trifle as compared with its rich assets in natural resources, there can be no harm in again bringing this subject to the attention of our readers. In this connection a statement recently made by Attorney-General Bowser at a meeting in Vancouver will bear repeating. Mr. Bowser was referring to some recent criticism of the Government's financial administration, and made himself very plain on this point.

The debt of British Columbia, he said, was only $16,000,000 and the recent bond issue of $10,000,000 was only made because the Government did not believe it wise to press for payment of money owing to it by citizens of the province who had bought provincial lands. No one criticized Vancouver for the expenditures made on public improvements. Yet Vancouver with a population of 120,000 had a debt of $21,000,000. The population of the province he said was about 525,000, or a debt per capita of some-thing less than $30, while Vancouver's debt per capita was $175. The city of Victoria with a population of 60,000 had a debt of $14,000,000, or a debt per capita of $233. The two cities' combined debt was $35,000,000 and yet no one criticized these two cities for having spent these amounts on improvements. The money had been well spent. Yet the province had a total debt of less than this amount, the money being all spent in improvements and he was sure that no fair-minded man could justly criticize them for the expenditure. At any rate the Government was willing to stand on their record and abide by the verdict of the people.

RUSSIA'S MILITARY PREPARATIONS.

The cables are being over-loaded these days with reports from German and Austrian sources of active military preparations on the part of Russia. Russia, we are told, is rapidly increasing her army—is preparing a gigantic test mobilization this year which will bring a great force against the Austrian frontier—has forbidden the export of horses in order to fatten up her cavalry.

The purpose of these despatches, says the Montreal Star, appears to be to turn public opinion against Russia as the prospective disturber of the peace. But our people in Canada should keep in mind several facts while they are being bombarded with these reports. One is that Russia, in building up her army, is doing no more than recovering her old position lost through the Japanese War. In this quite proper task, the British Government has been assisting by ensuring her plenty of financial support. For us to criticize this activity, is to criticize one of the main features of British policy for several years back. We have been helping to re-create the Russian army as a counterpoise to that of Germany.

Another pertinent fact to be kept in mind is that, in any rivalry between Russia and Germany or Austria, Russia is not the aggressor. Russia was moving along, attending to her own business, when Austria suddenly annexed the two Slav States of Bosnia and Herzegovina. The Slav Kingdom of Serbia protested, Russia, as the guardian of the Balkan Slavs, quite properly supported that protest. Then Germany heaped deep humiliation on her, in her then enfeebled condition, by swaggering on her frontier as a "man in shining armor" and commanding her to abandon Serbia at a moment's notice. It was said at the time that St. Petersburg was not even permitted to consult with her ally, France, or her friend, Great Britain. Naturally, after such a knock-down blow, Russia bends all her energies toward making another impossible.

A third pertinent and important fact for us to remember is that, willy, nilly, we are in the same boat just now with Russia; and must stay there. Everything that weakens Russia, exposes us to disaster when Armageddon comes. This may be a very selfish point of view to occupy, but self-preservation, always is selfish—and the three members of the Triple Entente must today "hang together or hang separately."

Lord Esher, a member of the Imperial Defence Committee, was, indeed, expressing no more than a common enough opinion in Great Britain when he urged at the Sorbonne in Paris last week that the Triple Entente be hardened into a new Triple Alliance. It is apparent enough that, if any member of this Entente is compelled to fight during the next few years against the Germanic Empires, the other members must come to its assistance. They simply cannot afford to stand aside and see it beaten. This being true, surely it would be better to organize victory in advance by preparing all the close and detailed plans for co-operation which usually characterize an Alliance rather than trust to the loose understandings of an Entente. It will be no child's play when "the day" comes; and we should make every preparation possible to ensure success.

A LIBERAL DEFECTION.

The statement of Sir Lyman Melvin Jones, Senator, and lately one of the most influential advisers of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, that he has severed his connection with the Liberal Party, attracts public attention. Sir Lyman has not invented any political subterfuge to conceal the fact that he leaves his party because it is attacking interests in which he is largely concerned as an investor and as a trustee for many other investors. He is the president and general manager of the Massey-Harris Company; director of at least three other concerns which manufacture farm machinery, and of one iron and steel company. He states frankly that since the Liberal Party, in opposition, has adopted a policy which would threaten disaster to these industries, and to others in which he is not personally concerned, and which is opposed to the best interests of the country he can no longer act with that party.

We do not know, says the News-Advertiser, whether the Conservatives are any stronger by reason of this accession to their numbers. They fought their battle in opposition with Sir Lyman Jones, Mr. Lloyd Harris, Senator Frost and a majority of the larger farm machinery interests against them. If Mr. Borden had taken the advice of some ardent party men in his ranks he might have offered this particular interest as a prize to the Western grain growers, and gained many thousands of votes by it. But he is a statesman and not a political trader, and though he knew that hundreds of thousands contributed by those interests went into campaign funds against him he has stood by his general policy of protection to home industries, including the industries of which Sir Lyman Jones is the head. If it has been found that some reduction in the duties on this class of product can be made without injury to the industrial system of the country, we trust that the declaration of the president of the Massey-Harris Company will not influence the course of the Government.

It is not difficult to understand the position of Sir Lyman Jones. He has a complete defence against the members and supporters of the late administration—if he has not against other critics. Senator Jones has been in the farm machinery business all his life. He has been all his life a Liberal. He was for years a member of the Manitoba Legislature, and for a time held office in the Greenway Administration. Though his leaders and his party at Ottawa in those days strongly denounced protection, and especially the duty on farm implements and machinery, Mr. Jones worked hard to bring them into power. When they were successful he and other Liberal manufacturers did their best to persuade them not to repeal the National Policy.

They were successful. Sir Wilfrid was in office fifteen years and the protective tariff continued. When Sir Wilfrid Laurier left office he left the manufacturers of farm machinery better protected than he found them. They had a percentage tariff which advanced with higher prices, and any reduction in the duties on raw material was gain to them. These were prosperous years, financially, for Sir Lyman Jones as well as for others in his line of business. The cities and towns where their factories were also prospered. In ten years the capital invested increased 150 per cent.; the value of products and the amounts paid in wages doubled. In every election the farm machinery industry contributed its share of votes to the Government, and the owners responded to the call for campaign funds. Once more out of power the Liberal leaders and their party, in the hope of capturing or holding the support of Western farmers, have opened fire upon this and other industries. Sir Lyman Jones has the option of joining them and assisting to crush the enterprise of which he is the head, with others of his class, or of withdrawing from his party. If he knows that Sir Wilfrid and his friends were never protectionists from conviction, but borrowed that policy for the support it would bring them, he is under no obligation to stay with them when they are seeking for support elsewhere by abandoning the policy they followed in office. If he knows that they believed their policy sound but are now selling out for a support that is worth more, Sir Lyman Jones has a right to say that they shall not sell him out with themselves.

Nor can Sir Wilfrid Laurier make complaint. Sir Lyman Jones is standing by the tariff policy of the Laurier Government. If Senator Jones had gone over to the Conservatives twenty years ago, before Sir Wilfrid took office, he might have been called an opportunist. But he cannot be so described by the late ministers. If Sir Lyman was ever a Free Trader the worst they can say of him is that he has changed once in the direction of his own interests, while they have changed twice.

MAY BE FOR ULSTER.

Speculation as to Destination of Cargo of Rifles Loaded on German Steamer Fanny.

London, April 3.—The possibility that a keen-witted American has been trying to take advantage of the Ulster unrest is suggested by a dispatch from The Daily Chronicle's Copenhagen correspondent, in referring to a cargo of rifles on board the German steamer Fanny, the destination of which has provided considerable speculation, being variously given as Ulster, Mexico and South America.

The dispatch says the owners of the steamer Carl Kitchen, from which the rifles were transferred to the Fanny, state that the contract for the ship and rifles was made with John Graham, of New York, who spoke with an American accent, and said that the rifles had arrived from the Upper Rhine and were destined for South America. The customs officers, however, state that the Fanny is furnished with coal and provisions for only a fortnight, and that a craft of Fanny's size would take six weeks in crossing the ocean.

The pulpit of St. Andrew's Church will be occupied next Sunday, at both services, by the Rev. Mr. Burth, of Westminster Hall, Vancouver.

Vernon's building permits for the month of March this year, reached a total of $14,400, as against $13,375 in March, 1913. The permits issued last month bring the total for the first three months of the calendar year to $17,750.

Work has been commenced on the six tennis courts of the Vernon Lawn Tennis Club, on Barnard Avenue, west of Dr. Morris' residence. If the weather continues fine, play will probably be begun about May 1. The turf promises to be in fine condition this season.

The W. C. T. U. Gold Medal Elocutionary Contest will be held in the Methodist Church Tuesday evening, April 21. Contestants who hold silver medals are Mrs. Hunter, Mrs. McBride, Mrs. Garbut, Miss Pound and Miss Bream. The programme will be interspersed with vocal and instrumental music.

The date of the Old Timers' Association dinner, which was set for some time ago for April 16, has been changed to the evening of Monday, April 30. All city members who intend to be present should hand in their names to J. G. Edwards, and those in other parts of the Okanagan should notify their local secretaries.

Although no definite announcement has been received from headquarters, it is now considered certain that the annual military camp will be held this year at Nicola, the date being the twelve days from May 18 to 28 inclusive. In addition to the infantry regiments, a number of regiments from the coast will be in attendance.

The O. K. Merry-makers will appear at Okanagan Landing on April 23 at 8 p.m. Visitors can rely on an evening free from boredom, and somewhat in the line of the famous "Pierré" entertainments. The proceeds will be devoted to reducing the small remaining debt on the hall at Ewing's Landing, Okanagan Lake.

Tonight, at the regular meeting of the Girls' Club, Mr. Fulton again takes up the "Merchant of Venice." The club act will be read, and the girls are prepared for a rousing discussion. It is hoped that the new matron, Mrs. Clerkhouse, will be in Vernon, and she will be glad to meet all girls interested, particularly the members, both active and associative.

From all parts of the Okanagan come reports that indicate a tremendous output of fruit this season. Should nothing untoward occur, the trees promise to give a remarkably heavy yield this year, and with the largely increased orchard acreage coming into bearing, it certainly looks as if 1914 will establish a record for production in this district.

Six of Vernon's representative Badminton players went to Kelowna last Saturday afternoon, and were outplayed 6-2, by the Kelowna pairs. Vernon players were Miss Schmitt, Mrs. Eric Hankey, Dr. Schmitt, Harry Fryer, H. Debeck and Harold Beattie. The Vernon pairs were beaten on all hands by the best Kelowna pair, but were victorious with the Kelowna second pairs. Mr. Still, of Kelowna, played a brilliant game. The Vernon Badminton Club has finished play for the season.

H. F. Lequesne, representing "The Orchard Players," who will present that fine comedy "David Garrick" at the Empress on the evening of Friday, April 17, was in town on Tuesday. In regard to the company, an exchange says: "Why the majority of the exclusive English productions should prefer to remain on Canadian soil has been a problem with the American managers. It is understood, however, that the 'Orchard Players' of British Columbia have decided to favor the drama will make the chance to see this novel production. It is often the case nowadays that we have a star surrounded by a mediocre company. This is not the case with the 'Orchard Players.' They are perfectly balanced, each member of the company an artist, tried and found to be true in every sense of the word. Not the only reason for supporting the 'Orchard Players' is because they are a company formed in British Columbia, but the much stronger reason, which is because they are a company of artistic ability, whose talent it is a delight to witness."

WE BELIEVE IT PAYS TO BE FRANK

With the public and have always tried to live up to that belief. This great event couples economy with efficiency, and the more you buy here now, the greater your saving. It's a most extraordinary opportunity. Last week the bargains offered were amazing to the most skeptical and economizing trade of the city and vicinity. Some have remarked that "we are very foolish to throw away profits now, and that we'll repent later." They point to the fact that this is the season of year when the very goods we are sacrificing are most in demand. We fully appreciate the advice of others, but THE SHATFORD STORE DOES NOTHING HALF WAY. Our big store will be packed and jammed daily. This is a suggestion that the sooner you make an investigation the better choosing you will have. COME, IF ONLY TO SEE.

Mr. H. Burkett, formerly assistant steward of the Kelowna Aquatic Club has been appointed secretary-steward of the Penticton Aquatic association. On account of the past experience possessed by Mr. Burkett, the appointment gives every satisfaction.

The outlook is good for a most successful season in connection with the activities of the Association.
Messrs. Hatfield and Campbell, of the Southern Okanagan Transportation Company, have again displayed considerable enterprise in connection with their business, and have just put on their new 25 horsepower Scripps motor launch, the "Mallard." This motor launch, the "Mallard," was made from the head of the lake to Kaleden and Okanagan Falls by the launches Cygnets and Kaleden. The boat will, however, make the run from Penticton down the Okanagan River. A trial trip, which was a complete success, was made last week
when a number of the owners enjoyed an excursion down the river. The scenic beauties of this trip are much admired, and it is fully expected that it will become very popular. It is the intention to make the run twice daily.

In St. Saviour's Church on Wednesday evening, April 1st at 8 o'clock, the marriage took place of Mr. Hamilton friends of the young couple, both of them being quite popular. The pastor, the Rev. J. A. Cleland, officiated. The bride was elegantly dressed in a gown of white Duchesse satin, with exquisite lace, and carried a beautiful bouquet of Easter lilies. Hadyn and Frances, sisters of the bride acted as bridesmaids, and were most daintily and becomingly attired. The groom-smen were Mr. H. H. Davis and Mr.

Llewellyn Morgan, and the ushers
were Walter Posse and Mr. D. Broome. Mr.
F. Guernsey presided very ably at the organ, and rendered the "Bridal Chorus" and Mendelssohn's "Wedding March." After the ceremony, the bride and party repaired to the home of the parents of the bride, where a delicious wedding repast was served.
Mr. and Mrs. Swan are spending their honeymoon at the coast, and on their return they will reside on Eckhard Avenue. They were the recipients of ple were the recipients of many handsome presents, and have taken up on Beech street.

Regret will be felt by the friends of Mr. J. B. Peter, of the news of his rather sudden death on the voyage home to the Old Country. Deceased made many friends during the three years he resided here. From the time he came to the country, he was a popular figure, and his death is a great loss to the community. He was born in Scotland, and came to this country in 1880. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church, and was a very active worker in the church.
He was a very kind and generous man, and his death is a great loss to the community.

On last Saturday night, an interesting Chess tournament was held with Kelowna by telegraph. The chess players held the line, by special arrangement with Okanagan Telephone Company, from 8 p. m. to the small hours of 4 a. m., when one game was postponed. Four boards were played,
of which Armstrong lost three, but all were very close indeed. Games will probably be continued on Saturday, April 18. Mr. Wigglesworth looked after arrangements for Armstrong, and
R. B. Kerr for Kelowna.

City Council Held Meeting
At the City Council meeting on Monday, Mr. Fletcher appeared before the Council to the effect that teamsters of the city were not in favor of levying taxes, as suggested at a previous meeting.

The petitions for the widening of Becker street was again brought before the Council and it was decided to put the work in hand at once, to appoint a competent engineer, and to get Billings & Cochrane to draw up the necessary by-law.

The board of works repairing estimate was put up and passed, the following is the program:

City, $100; Slater's corner to Hawkins,
$25; Pleasant Valley and Center, $450;
Bosede extension, $100; Public school

Mrs. Petrie returned from her visit to Armstrong on Friday.
Mr. and Mrs. Hoare, of Falkland, were in Vernon on Saturday.

Thursday, and returned on Friday.
The K. S. S. sold nine cows and heifers to Brydon Brothers. The price paid was $900.

Master Charles McPhie, of Vancouver, is a guest at the home of W. J.
Andrews.

Miss Mary Smith has been staying with her sister, Mrs. C. Schwebb, at Nicola, for the last few weeks.

tion as teacher of Falkland School
this term.

E. Hillyer has taken on the contract to plough up a considerable portion of land on the Petrie ranch.

A. E. Curtis returned on Tuesday, March 24, from a fortnight's visit to his parents in Kelowna.

W. J. Andrews, of Hendon, has returned from the coast, his brother, R.
McKenney, and R. Chamberlain have been assisting him.

The Lantern Entertainment given by the Rev. Green in "The Barn" at Glenemma last evening was well attended. The lecture started with a prayer in the Japanese language, being thrown on the screen. The views were extremely interesting, and showed every phase of Japanese life.

Mrs. Butchart has kindly provided for the lantern and artistic covers for the program of members of the Salmon River Women's Institute.
The scenes painted on them are typical of the valley, and are most beautifully executed, and they will certainly be kept as souvenirs by the lucky recipients.

Ploughing has commenced in earnest
now and the farmers around are all busy with their spring work. The fruit tree agents are out upon the war path, and beguiling the settler
to part with his hard earned money.
The agents of orcharders are going in for strawberry culture this year, whilst the chicken industry appeals to others
in spite of the falling prices in birds and eggs.

fall. The money is to be used to buy wire or whatever is most necessary for the children's flower gardens. This donation is given out of the special prize of $25 which was won by the Institute at the fair. The money will be sent to the teachers, and the scholars will also be provided with collections of flower seeds by the government.

OYAMA
Miss Crandell visited Vernon for a few days last week.

H. Zetzsche has taken up his residence on the property which was formerly owned by Captain Gordon.

C. Townsend and his wife have arrived from the Old Country, and have taken up their residence on the ranch
of A. S. Townsend, by whom Mr. Townsend is employed.

The organization meeting of the Kalamalka Women's Institute takes place in the public hall, Oyama, on the last Thursday in April at 2 p. m. Mrs.
Lipsett of the Advisory Board will be present.

H. Alford took part in the performance of Mendelssohn's "Hymn of Praise" in the Anglican Church at Vernon last week. A large number from here attended and speak very highly of the manner in which this famous oratorio was rendered.

H. A. Beasley arrived from the Old Country last week accompanied by his son. He has settled down on the ranch
he bought last autumn, on the west side of Wood Lake, and is enlarging his residence in expectation of the arrival shortly of the remainder of his family.

MARA
E. Bennett, of Mara, was a business visitor to Enderby Saturday.

A. Boll, of Sicamous, was a visitor to Mara friends Friday and Saturday
of last week.

A dance will be held at Grindrod on the evening of April 17, in the School House. The Mara orchestra is to furnish the music.

Charles Davidson, who has been wintering at his old home in England, returned to Mara on Friday. He is looking well and reports having enjoyed a pleasant voyage.

On Friday, April 10th (Good Friday)
the Mara Choral Society will give a public sacred concert in the hall. The work chosen is Stainer's "Crucifixion."
A full house is anticipated. P. W.
Chapman, of Enderby, will direct the singing, and will, if possible, bring a few members of the Enderby choral society to assist.

T. Gray and daughter, Miss Ethel, arrived back from Australia on Saturday last. Both are looking well, and say that they have enjoyed their long voyage and sojourn in Australia immensely. Mr. Gray reports very favorably of conditions among farmers, and the working class generally in Australia.

Spring cleaning is the order of the day, both indoors and outside, and the smoke of burning rubbish heaps,
brush piles, etc., is seen ascending heavenward in all directions. At this time it is well to remember the disastrous bush fires which swept this end of the valley in the spring of 1906.
High winds often prevail here, now that the timber is cleared out, and all who employ fires as a means of clearing land should use every precaution
to keep them well in control.

Quite a large audience gathered at the Mara Church on Tuesday evening, March 31, to attend the lecture delivered by the Rev. Mr. Reed, of Enderby, the subject being "The Klondike."
Mr. Reed has spent a number of years in the Yukon, and his lecture, couched in his lecture, gave many thrilling and graphic descriptions of the hardships endured by the pioneers of that northern country. The lantern views were an interesting feature, and quite a number of the children. The receipts from the lecture were good, considering the small attendance fee charged,
and will be devoted to church work
here.

OKANAGAN LANDING

The "movie" has appeared in a new role: that of competitor with the saloons. In New York city within the last five years 533 saloons have closed. The moving picture theatres are blamed, or rather credited, with having caused their closing in nearly every case. It has been found that many men and youths go to the saloons for companionship only, not because they like drinking, and that the "movies" have taken the place of saloons for them.

WANTED AT ONCE—Pekia Drake. Notify Mrs. J. Cox, Armstrong.
